The Proposed National Convention.

We expressed ourselves, on yesterday, in favor of the proposition to hold a National Union Convention in the City of Philadelphia in August, and in favor of having the conservative sentiment of North Carolina represented therein. This wish is not inconsistent with our desire that the people of the State, and of the South, should not be mixed up with political organizations, as such, until their rights in the Union shall have been fully accorded and acknowledged. We regard the movement as one designed and calculated to take the Constitution out of the hands of fanatics and demagogues and restore it to its original integrity and purity, and to perpetuate the Union, as it was framed by our fathers. We do not consider that it is intended to build up a party, or to adopt or sanction any other issues than the simple specific one embraced in the call. If we thought otherwise, we should avoid, for our people, any identification with it. We should shun connection with it, if we supposed that its object was not to harmonize the country, but to distribute spoils or nominate persons for office.

In this connection, we hail with pleasure the noble action of the leaders of the Northern Democracy. It will have been observed that they consent to merge their party organization, for the time being, for the sake of the patriotic object proposed by the Convention,—leaving their distinctive party obligations to be resumed when this object shall have been accomplished. In this step, we are confident, they reflect the sentiments and wishes of the masses whom they represent. It is the most hopeful augury of the times, that so large and powerful an organization should be willing to sink party in the great cause of Constitutional Union.

It is impossible that a body of intelligent men, whose motives are sanctified by a desire to rescue from ruin the work of the founders of the Republic, to take measures for the prompt and positive restoration of perfect equality among the States, under the Constitution, and to protect from desecration the charter of the rights and liberties of the people, can proceed in any other spirit than that of patriotic devotion to the national government. A body, thus constituted and animated, would have the moral force of a primary Congress of the people of the United States, met to consider the general welfare of the nation.

We therefore repeat our suggestion, that steps be immediately inaugurated in the several Congressional Districts for the purpose of appointing the two delegates to which each will be entitled. Such meetings, when thus assembled, may seize the occasion to perfect the Conservative organization for the ensuing campaign, and bring out men of the right stripe for the Legislature.

As to the four delegates for the State at large, we like the plan which has been proposed in Virginia, viz: to allow the delegates chosen by the Congressional districts to assemble in the Capital of the State and designate them. This strikes us as an excellent idea, seeing that we cannot afford to have a general State Convention for the purpose.

What county will move first in this important matter?

Government vs. Postmasters.

It is announced that the Federal Government intends to sue the postmasters who were in office at the time of the secession of the Southern States for all moneys belonging to the Government then in their hands. The following list, taken from the office records, is published as the balance due by the principal postmasters in Virginia:

Richmond, Thomas B. Bigger	$23,588
Petersburg, Wm. E. Bass	6,574
Norfolk, A. M. Vaughn	5,943
Alexandria, Turner W. Ashby	5,288
Lynchburg, Robert H. Glass	2,174

THE NUMBER OF AMENDMENTS.—Judge Lewis D. Campbell, recently in a public speech declared that, as near as he could remember, "about one hundred and sixty-five amendments have been offered to the Constitution of the United States during the present session of Congress." The Radical party before the war rejected every amendment to that instrument to save the Union and avoid the late disastrous war. They would not concur in a single one to save the land from war and devastation; but they now propose a hundred and sixty-five to perpetuate the war of sections and of races after the war of blood is ended!

WILLIE P. MANGUM, Jr., of this State, and a son of the late Priestley Mangum, of Orange, has taken the test oath and goes to Nagasaki, Japan, as United States Consul. For eight or ten years past, Mr. Mangum has been Consul at the port of Ningpo, China.

Lieutenant Governor.

Maj. Robert Strange is spoken of as a suitable candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Strange is a gentleman of very high order of talents, and is one of the purest men we ever met. We suppose Gov. Worth's interest will be against him, because Mr. Strange had the misfortune eight or ten years ago to be a Democrat. Col. Ferebee, an old line Whig, is the Sentinel's favorite.—Charlotte Times.

The fling in the above, from our friend of the Times, is wholly unwarranted by anything which the Sentinel, or its Editors, or Gov. Worth, have said or done. When the war was forced upon us, though strongly opposed to it and devoted to the Union, we determined to ignore all old party obligations and give our support to every true man who sustained the Southern cause, so far as the pledges of the State to prosecute the war bound us. During that period we knew neither Whig nor Democrat, except as our means of knowing the men fixed our attachments to the one or the other. We defy proof to the contrary. When the war closed, we determined still to ignore old party names and old party obligations, and, in fact, not to connect ourselves with any party, until the complete restoration of the Union was effected, but to give our earnest support to the Union of the States, on the plan of President Johnson, in opposition to all Radical or strait-sect tendencies.

In North Carolina, we conceive, there is no party organization, nor believe we there should be until the Union is finally restored. But, we act cordially and sincerely with all men, whether Whig or Democrat, who sincerely desire the Union of the States on President Johnson's plan.

If there be a faction in the State who are opposed to a Constitutional Union,—who can countenance, on the one hand, the principles of the Radicals, or, on the other, are disposed to revive old issues and old party affiliations and encourage discontent and dissatisfaction or disloyalty to the Government,—we cannot, we will not, go with such faction or factions. We are for the restoration of the Union on President Johnson's plan, and no other, and we are ready to join with any and all, whether old Whigs or old Democrats, to effect this. We say we co-operate with, and support that measure, as above and beyond all party affiliations whatever. And we defy the Times, or any one else, to show to the contrary.

Now if there is any such thing in the State as a Whig or Democratic party, we unhesitatingly say we do not belong to either, and shall not, until the question of restoration to the Union is settled finally. And, in all our acts, both in public and private, in our recommendations for office, and in every other way in which we could exhibit our true position, we have done as much to promote the interests of sound old Democrats as we have of sound old Whigs. As to the suggestion of the name of Robert Strange, Esq., for Lieut. Governor, we unhesitatingly endorse all the good things said of him, and, if he should be the choice of the Conservative Constitutional Union men in the State, of whom we acknowledge Jonathan Worth to be the true leader—who came to the rescue of the true Conservatives of the State, when the cause seemed hopeless—we say, if Mr. Strange is the choice of the Constitutional Union men of the State for that position, we would support him as cheerfully and as warmly as we would any man—certainly none the less so because he is a Democrat.

We have expressed our entire confidence in Col. Ferebee, and we will gladly support him for the same office, for the reason that, on two occasions, he was selected for the office of Speaker of the Senate, by the Constitutional Union men, both Whigs and Democrats, and was defeated. From the fact that he was their choice, and from our knowledge of his sound and unquestionable integrity, true courage, ability and fitness for the office, we have expressed a favorable opinion of his claims to that office, and for no other reason.

"NATIONAL RESTORATION."—The last number of the Old North State, edited by the Hon. Lewis Hanes, contains an exceedingly able and manly article upon this subject, which, but for its length, we should be pleased to transfer to our columns. Among other good and true things, Mr. Hanes forcibly says:

"We do not hesitate to affirm that Congress has not the shadow of right to propose amendments to the Constitution and present them to the Southern States, as a sine qua non upon which they may be allowed to exercise a right under the Constitution which is as clearly theirs as any right can be; which is, in fact, inherent in the very nature of our government, and of which they cannot be deprived for any great length of time without subverting the Government itself. Will the people of North Carolina ever consent to purchase a right to which they are clearly entitled, and which is withheld from them by a usurping majority in Congress, by accepting at their hands any amendment to the Constitution, even though it should be far less objectionable than the Howard amendment?—We do not believe they will.

But what shall we do? is a question frequently asked. We answer, preserve our temper, and oppose a constant but dignified opposition to the Radical propositions. Let us wait with a manly patience for a returning sense of right and justice in the minds of our Northern brethren. If the Southern people will do this, if they will refrain from doing anything calculated to inflame the Northern people against us, they are bound to triumph sooner or later.—The Radicals cannot always keep us out of Congress without such violations of the Constitution—without such gross violation of the fundamental principles of our government, as will endanger liberty, not only in the Southern States, but throughout the whole nation. The Northern people are far too intelligent not to see this, and when the passions and prejudices of the hour shall have passed away, and reason shall have resumed her sway—as will be the case in a short time, if we of the South pursue a proper course—they will abandon to their fate the revolutionary leaders who are now misleading them and abusing their confidence, and rally to the support of the Constitution and the Union. They will not long remain idle spectators of injustice and oppression. They will not long permit any large portion of the people of the United States to be subjected to the injustice of "taxation without representation," remembering, as they do, that it was to redress that same grievance that their Revolutionary fathers went to war with the mighty power of Great Britain."

National Union Convention.

A National Union Convention of at least two delegates from each Congressional District of all the States, two from each Territory, two from the District of Columbia, and four delegates at large from each State, will be held at the city of Philadelphia, on the second Tuesday (14th) of August next.

Such delegates will be chosen by the electors of the several States who sustain the Administration in maintaining unbroken the Union of the States under the Constitution which our fathers established, and who agree in the following propositions, viz:

The Union of the States is, in every case, indissoluble, and is perpetual; and the Constitution of the United States, and the laws passed by Congress in pursuance thereof, supreme and constant, and universal in their obligation;

The rights, the dignity, and the equality of the States in the Union, including the right of representation in Congress, are solemnly guaranteed by that Constitution, to save which from overthrow so much blood and treasure were expended in the late civil war.

There is no right, anywhere, to dissolve the Union, or to separate States from the Union, either by voluntary withdrawal, by force of arms, or by Congressional action: neither by the secession of the States, nor by the exclusion of their loyal and qualified representatives, nor by the National Government in any other form;

Slavery is abolished, and neither can, nor ought to be, re-established in any State or Territory within our jurisdiction;

Each State has the undoubted right to prescribe the qualifications of its own electors, and no external power rightfully can, or ought to dictate, control, or influence the free and voluntary action of the States in the exercise of that right;

The maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially of the right of each State to order and control its own domestic concerns, according to its own judgment exclusively, subject only to the Constitution of the United States, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend, and the overthrow of that system by the usurpation and centralization of power in Congress would be a revolution, dangerous to republican government and destructive of liberty;

Each House of Congress is made, by the Constitution, the sole judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of its members; but the exclusion of loyal Senators and Representatives, properly chosen and qualified under the Constitution and laws, is unjust and revolutionary;

Every patriot should frown upon all those acts and proceedings everywhere, which can serve no other purpose than to rekindle the animosities of war, and the effect of which upon our moral, social and material interests at home, and upon our standing abroad, differing only in degree, is injurious like war itself;

The purpose of the war having been to preserve the Union and the Constitution by putting down the rebellion, and the rebellion having been suppressed, all resistance to the authority of the general Government being at an end, and the war having ceased, war measures should also cease, and should be followed by measures of peaceful administration, so that union, harmony and concord may be encouraged, and industry, commerce and the arts of peace revived and promoted; and the early restoration of all the States to the exercise of their constitutional powers in the National government is indispensably necessary to the strength and the defence of the Republic, and to the maintenance of the public credit.

All such electors in the thirty-six States and nine Territories of the United States, and in the District of Columbia, who, in a spirit of patriotism and love for the Union, can rise above personal and sectional considerations, and desire to see a truly National Union Convention, which shall represent all the States and Territories of the Union, assemble, as friends and brothers, under the national flag, to hold counsel together upon the state of the Union, and to take measures to avert possible danger from the same, are specially requested to take part in the choice of such delegates.

But no delegate will take a seat in such Convention who does not loyally accept the national situation, and cordially endorse the principles above set forth, and who is not attached, in true allegiance, to the Constitution, the Union and the Government of the United States.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1866.

Comfort for the Weak-Kneed.

There is reason to believe that there are some few persons in this State, who, while they abominate the Howard amendment in their hearts, are so timid and nervous that, when the pinch comes, they might be induced to vote for it, as a foregone conclusion, and "as the best we can get." For the comfort of all such weak-kneed gentry, we commend the following from the last National Intelligencer:

"It is already certain that neither Maryland nor Indiana will ratify this outrageous abomination, and without them the Constitutional majority of States cannot be obtained. Some of the Southern States, crushed and helpless as they are, may be driven by desperation to degrade and humiliate themselves to commit moral and political suicide, by endorsing this outrage upon them, and by plunging this poisoned dagger into their own hearts; but since the exposition of the falsehood and treachery and craven guiltiness of its authors, even should all the eleven States hug this phantom to their bosoms, there cannot be found besides enough Northern States to adopt it to make the requisite Constitutional majority."

Minister to San Salvador.

The National Intelligencer of the 26th. says: "The appointment of Governor Holden, as Minister to San Salvador, is likely to be confirmed at the next executive session of the United States Senate."

It is stated that two reports on the Rousseau-Grinnell affair will be brought in from the committee appointed by the House to investigate the matter. One report will be for expelling Rousseau and the other for censure. So it would seem that there are some members of Congress who believe that insolence should be punished, after all.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The 51st. session of J. M. Lovejoy's Academy will commence on the 9th. prox.

We call especial attention to Worth and Daniel's advertisement of the Philadelphia and Wilmington steamship line, and also of the New York line. Our merchants and farmers in the interior will find it to their interest to patronize these lines, whereby they will, at the same time, build up a most important and commendable enterprize.

Towles announces another auction for Saturday.

LECTURE ON THE DEVIL.—S. S. Bryant, Esq., of Danville, Va., has recently highly entertained the citizens of Danville and Greensboro, and, last night, the citizens of Salisbury, with an originial, unique and highly interesting Lecture upon the origin and character of the Devil. It is said that the lecture combines the genius, the logic and the eloquence of the author. This is saying a good deal.

Perhaps such a Lecture, if it enables the hearer to discover the "wiles" of Satan and to shun his "nets and gins," would do good in this city, though we regret to say that literary, scientific, historical or political lectures, when the people have to pay for them, are not as highly appreciated as the intelligence of the community would warrant. Nevertheless as, in this case, the subject is not liable to the objection that it is stale, we should be glad for Mr. Bryant to repeat his lecture in this city.

A MAN named Whitney, of Portsmouth, Va., (says the Norfolk Virginian,) a few days since perpetrated a heavy swindling operation, by which he, and an accomplice named Woodward, swindled Mr. E. H. Lassiter, of Northampton county, N. C., out of fourteen bales of cotton.

THE 23RD inst., (St. John's Day,) was a great day with the Masons in Yanceyville. A correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says:

"Great preparations had been made by the hospitable citizens of Yanceyville for a grand time, and they knew what they were about.—Forming the procession, the Masons marched to a beautiful grove to the music of the old Twenty-fourth North Carolina regimental band, where they were most cordially greeted by the Hon. John Kerr, who, in his peculiarly felicitous manner, gave all a hearty welcome. Then he introduced the orator of the day, Rev. J. F. B. Mays, a Baptist minister from South Carolina, who for an hour interested his audience with a most telling speech. After the speech, the ladies and the Masons were invited to dinner—and such a dinner—everything to tempt the appetite, and in the greatest abundance. I suppose not less than six or eight hundred persons dined with the Lodge.

The crowd was estimated at from fifteen to twenty-five hundred persons."

THE "BUREAU" IN WILMINGTON.—A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal thus ventilates the beauties of the Bureau, as it is administered in that City. Many similar cases to those described in the Journal are constantly occurring, wherever the remarkable institution exists:

"The following cases are reported, not to show that this officer did wrong intentionally, for I make no such charge, but to illustrate the evils of the Bureau, and the deceptive character of most of these negroes who are running to the Freedmen's Bureau with their complaints.—Civil law is now in operation, and negroes can have justice at the hands of civil law as well as whites.

CASE 1st. A prominent citizen of the county settled with one of his laborers, a freedman, at the close of last year. The Bureau in Wilmington approved the settlement, in view of all the facts of the case. A record, it is presumed, exists of this settlement in the Bureau, and yet this negro, as soon as Major Wickersham is relieved from duty, goes down to Wilmington, and reports his employer to the officer succeeding, for alleged wrongs previously reported, and settled as aforesaid. At once this gentleman is summoned to appear again on trial, infirm though he is, busy though he was, and living fifteen miles from the Bureau. True in his obedience to the laws, he goes down, but the trial was postponed.

CASE 2nd. A kind and aged gentleman in the country allowed some negroes to settle on his land last winter, when they had not where to lay their heads. Recently one of them, without any provocation, insulted and abused the old man. Being deaf and unable to hear the abusive epithets, his nephew, who happened to hear the language, came to the rescue, as he should have done, and ordered the negro to leave his uncle's premises at once. Mild orders being unavailing, he threatened to shoot the negro, and made some attempts to get a gun, when the boy left. At once the ungrateful negro reported the nephew to the Bureau, misrepresenting the case, and obtained an order to the young gentleman to appear at the Bureau.

Case 3d. An influential citizen of the county, a member of the County Court, had some difficulty, as overseer of the road, with a worthless negro, because the negro was seeking to evade public duty. This officer of the civil law was seized by the throat by the negro, who otherwise acted outrageously, threatening to kill him. The Magistrate, obedient to the law, took out a peace warrant, and a trial was had before the civil law. The negro was about to be committed to jail till the following Court, in default of bail, when, in response to the entreaties of the defendant for pardon and forgiveness, and all sorts of rich promises to act right in the future, the sympathies of the plaintiff yielded to his better judgment, and he let the prisoner off.—The negro, advised by bad men, perhaps, or by his own bad heart, goes to the Bureau and reports the Magistrate, obtains a paper ordering him to appear at the Bureau. Living some twenty-five miles off, very busy in his crop, it was not convenient to attend at once, but he soon received a peremptory order to attend, accompanied with a threat that unless he did so he would be arrested and accompanied by a guard of soldiers. He went to the Bureau, presented his evidence, and the case was dismissed with a little advice to the lying negro, which fell no doubt upon him as rain does upon a rock, to go home and be a good boy. Here was a man, a good citizen, who exhibited great forbearance to the negro, taken from his farm-work at this busy season, and spends necessarily two or three days of himself and horse, besides other expenses of travel and board in Wilmington, in order to answer charges made by an irresponsible, turbulent, deceptive negro."

The Constitutional Amendment.

We perceive that the Governor of Ohio has declined to call an extra session of the Legislature of that State for the purpose of taking action on the constitutional amendment recently proposed by concurrent action, without asking Executive sanction. In this the Governor of Ohio has acted very wisely. His example will no doubt be followed by the Governors of other States who do not wish to precipitate upon the country the confusion and danger involved in such an important change in our fundamental principles of government as that embraced in the proposed amendment. Governor Fenton, with the unfortunate lights of other extra sessions before him, will not think for a moment of calling the Legislature of this State together for the sole object of deliberating upon or adopting this amendment, which was known to have been hurried through Congress and sent before the Governors of the different States with a degree of haste insulting to the Executive. The President has had no way of reaching the subject or presenting his views to Congress upon it, except through the medium of a special message or protest, and it would have been highly desirable had he done so at length in this brief but pointed document. In this he takes occasion to disclaim any official authorization of the action of the Secretary of State in laying the proposed amendment before the several State Governors. On the contrary, he says:—"A proper appreciation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, as well as of the interest of national order, harmony and union, and a deference for an enlightened public judgment, may at this time well suggest a doubt whether any amendment to the constitution ought to be proposed by Congress and pressed upon the legislatures of the several States for final decision, until after the admission of such loyal Senators and Representatives of the now unrepresented States as have been or may hereafter be chosen in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the United States." Here is the hitch between the President and Congress; and now the latter have called upon the Governors of the various States to endorse their hasty and inconsiderate legislation. If Congress believed its course correct and popular, why did it skulk under the mantle of a concurrent resolution to avoid the action of the Executive in so vital a matter as a Constitutional amendment? It remains to be seen how far the Governors of the loyal States will go in sustaining Congress in its efforts to usurp all the functions of government, the executive and administrative as well as the legislative. The melancholy experience of former years in calling extra sessions, we repeat, must prevent Gov. Fenton from calling our Legislature together, unless he is prepared to meet and abide the fate of his imprudent predecessors.—N. Y. Herald.

MILITARY COURTS ILLEGAL.—Judge Bullard, of Kentucky, in pronouncing his opinion in the Henderson habeas corpus case, made the following remarks:

I agree with Sir James Mackintosh that, "while the laws are silenced by the noise of arms, the rulers of the armed force must punish, as equitably as they can, those crimes which threaten their own safety and that of society, but no longer; every moment beyond is usurpation. As soon as the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormous crime.

Let the relator be discharged.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE.—Foster of Connecticut, Trumbull, of Illinois, McDougall, of California, Harris, of New York, Lane, of Indiana, Pomeroy, of Kansas, Kirkwood, of Iowa, Davis, of Kentucky, Creswell, of Maryland, Brown, of Missouri, Clark, of New Hampshire, Nye, of Nevada, Sherman, of Ohio, Cowan, of Pennsylvania, Howe, of Wisconsin, and Nesmith, of Oregon, finish their terms on the 4th of March, 1867. Mr. Trumbull will have for competitors for the Republican nomination General Logan and Governor Oglesby. Hon. Cornelius Cole will take the place of Mr. McDougall.—Lane, of Indiana, declines a re-election, and Speaker Colfax and Mr. Julian are candidates for the Republican nomination, but from the present aspect of affairs it is believed that Hon. D. W. Voorhees will be elected. Secretary Harlan will take the place of Mr. Kirkwood.—Governor Carney is a candidate for nomination in the place of Mr. Pomeroy. Governor Bramlette, ex-Governor Powell, and Hon. Robt. Mallory are spoken of in the place of Garrett Davis, although the choice may fall upon Rousseau, notwithstanding he resides in the same district with Guthrie. The place of Creswell will be filled either by Governor Swan, Hon. Montgomery Blair, or Hon. J. W. Crisfield. Major General Frank Blair will be the opponent of Gratz Brown in Missouri. Professor S. W. Patterson has been elected to succeed Mr. Clark.—A legion of hungry hopers are canvassing for the place of Senator Cowan, including Hickman, Kelley, Ketchum, Wilmot, Cameron, Forney, and Stevens. It is expected that Hon. A. H. Randall, present Assistant Postmaster General, will be elected in the place of Mr. Howe; a movement is on foot in Winconsin to put up General C. C. Washburne as a candidate for the nomination, with the hope of defeating Governor Randall.

THE SECRET DISCLOSED.—It appears now that the miraculously prompt proclamation of Gov. Brownlow, calling an extra session of the Tennessee rump Legislature, was elicited, not by any request of any portion of the people of that State, but by the petition of forty Radical members of Congress. It is true that these forty Radical members of Congress have nearly as much right as Gov. Brownlow's rump Legislature to ratify the constitutional amendments for the State of Tennessee, but it is a burning shame and disgrace that the people of a State should be thus totally ignored in a matter which concerns them so nearly, and be made a mere shuttlecock for the amusement or convenience of a run-mad Radical Governor and a reckless majority in Congress.—National Intelligencer.

It is stated by prominent senators in Washington that Mr. Seward has concluded a secret treaty with Napoleon, by which the United States is debarred from interfering with the movement of the foreign troops now supporting Maximilian. After the withdrawal of the French, Maximilian, it is understood, will offer himself as a candidate for the Presidency of the Mexican republic. Having secured that position, he is to take advantage of any small revolution, of which Mexico affords so many, and declare himself Emperor, thereby flanking the Monroe doctrine and having a firmer imperial throne than at present. It is probable the Senate will solicit information from Mr. Seward concerning this little game.

A case of murder too horrid for recital occurred near Medina, N. Y., on the 18th instant. A clergyman named Lindsley whipped his son, a child three years old, so savagely that it died under the infliction. In the statement before the coroner's jury the father confesses to have continued the chastisement for more than two hours.

"Evil communications corrupt good manners." Never was this axiom more applicable than now. Let us avoid the home Radicals and the Radicals in Congress.

Illness of Senator Lane,—Gen. Blair and the Missouri Test-Oath.

ST. LOUIS, June 28.

Senator Lane, of Kansas, is quite ill in this City. He is threatened with paralysis. His physician does not think it will be possible for him to take his seat in the Senate again this session.

The case of Gen. Blair against the Judge of election for refusing to receive his vote, without first taking the oath prescribed, was decided against him, on yesterday, before the general term of the Circuit Court. This is the first decision involving the validity of a voter's oath in this State.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 27.

SENATE.—Mr. Wade, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported a bill to repeal an act to retrocede the county of Alexandria to Virginia. The object of the bill is to make Alexandria a part of the District.

The bill to aid the construction of telegraph lines and to secure to the government the use of the same for postal, military, and other, purposes, was called up and some discussion ensued. Mr. Brown, in the course of some remarks, alluding to the recent report of the Postmaster General on the subject of telegraphing, said that he had shown himself utterly incompetent for the position he holds; that his report was made up in great part of the communications of parties interested in the great monopoly that now controls the telegraph system of this country. He (the Postmaster General) had reflected more discredit upon himself in this connection than perhaps had transpired with regard to any other officer of the government.

Mr. Sherman regretted that Mr. Brown should have made such a personal attack on Mr. Dennison, whom he (Sherman) knew to have the public interests at heart.

HOUSE.—The bill for the prevention of smuggling was passed.

Mr. Murrill, of Vermont, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the Senate amendments to the tax bill. The House concurred in nearly all of them, but disagreed to the one taxing Cotton two instead of five cents a pound.—This, with other amendments, will be adjusted by a Committee of Conference.

The President, on yesterday, authorized the issue of a pardon to Prof. A. T. Bledsoe, who, in the early part of the war, was Assistant Secretary of War under the Confederate Government. The pardon was earnestly recommended by Hon. O. H. Browning and others.

Another Arrival From Europe,—the War Begun.

NEW YORK, June 27.

The Steamship Java is just in, with Liverpool dates to the 17th.

The Federal Diet having on the 14th., by a vote of 9 to 6, agreed to the Austrian proposals for the mobilization of the Federal army, Prussia, agreeably to previous notice, carried out her threat to consider it as an act of hostility on the part of the States which supported it, and on the following day commenced the war by sending troops into Saxony and Hanover.

It is also rumored that Austrian troops entered Saxony. This is not confirmed, but it is believed that Benedict would at once move to attack the Prussians.

After the action of the Federal Diet, the Prussian representatives protested against it as unconstitutional, said that Prussia considered the Confederation dissolved and immediately withdrew from the Diet.

Baron Ricasotz is forming a new Italian Ministry. Iamarmore goes to camp with the King, as Minister without the portfolio.

The Atlantic cable is finished and the Great Eastern leaves Sherness on the 13th. prox.

The ex-cruisers Tallahassee and Sumpter have ben sold at auction at Liverpool.

Later and Interesting by the Java.

NEW YORK, June 27.

The action of the American government towards the Fenians gives general satisfaction.—The London Times eulogizes it and says it would be impossible to exaggerate the good faith friendliness, sincerity and regard for mutual obligations which has prompted it. In its energetic and decisive measures, it has acted in a manner which even exceeds anything that could reasonably have been expected from the most friendly nation. The article expresses gratification that such distinguished Generals as Grant and Meade should have been sent to the scene, and says that these energetic acts of genuine friendship will be long and cordially remembered.

At the closing of the dispatch there is no news of a positive collision having yet occurred in Germany.

A Prague telegram of the 16th. says that the Prussians occupy Laban, Bitten and Menoce, Seickenditz and Zeitz. The railway between Riza and Dresden has been destroyed, and passenger and freight communication between Prussia and Saxony is stopped.

The Crown Princess of Saxony proceeds to Vienna. The Saxony treasury valuables, and provisions for the army, have been transported for security to Bohemia.

A Frankfort despatch says that Prince Charles, of Bavaria, will be appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Federal army.

The Austrians had interrupted all lines of communication on their side of the Poo and Minere.

Still Later.

The entry of the Prussians into Saxony is fully confirmed. The Prussians having previously declared war, the entry of the Austrians is hourly expected.

The Paris press publishes a report that the first engagement took place near Serpsorg on the 16th., but the rumor is unconfirmed.

The Diet held an extraordinary meeting on the 16th. to decide on the motion by Saxony that Austria and Bavaria be requested to adopt immediately such measures as will be necessitated by the Prussian invasion.

Prussia has issued a declaration to the great powers, justifying the invasion, on the ground that the decision of the Diet on the 14th. broke up the Confederation, and the law of self-preservation compelled her to secure herself against the neighboring States in open or concerted hostilities; that she offered a conditional alliance, which was rejected.

The Paris Bourse was flat on the 16th.

The report of the Jamaica Commissioners will be laid before Parliament on the 8th. prox.

The Sunday papers say that the fate of the Reform bill and Ministry will be decided to-morrow. The conservatives are determined to attempt the defeat of the government.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq., President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or two of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are that superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenchantant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Because of affliction and age which renders me incapable of continuing business, I now retire from the Book trade, leaving my entire stock and interest in the hands of Messrs. Branson and Farrer—except the publication of the "N. C. Almanac," which, I trust will be received with the same favor as heretofore.

In retiring, I return my sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage which the public has chosen to bestow upon me during the last half century—the length of time in which I have been engaged in the book trade in this State—and cheerfully recommend to my old friends and patrons, my successors, Messrs. Branson & Farrer, by whom, I am sure they will be satisfactorily accommodated.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DEROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.
